DIRECTORY.

COUNTY DIRECTORY,

CIRCUITCOURT.

don Joseph Noe, Attorney, Calhoon.
U. J. Bean, Jailer, Hartford.
Ctarence Hardwick, Clerk, Hartford.
J. P. Barrett, Master Commissioner, Hartford.
R. P. Hocker, Sheriff, Beaver Dam.
Deputies: L. P. Loney, McHeury; J. P.
Gilmore, Fordsville; O. C. Butler, Crom-

COUNTY COURT

C. V. Massie, Judge, Hartford. F. J. Smith, Clerk, Hartford. H. B. Kinsolving, Attorney, Hartford. Court begins on the first Monday in ever

QUARTERLY COURT.

Begins on the third Mondays in January t pril, July and October.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

OTHER COUNTY OFFICERS. E. P. Harnett, Surveyor, Hartford, John W. Moseley, Assessor, Whitesville, F. L. Felix, School Commissioner, Hartfor

POLICE COURTS.

Hartford J. S. Glenn, Judge; John Bean, Marshall, Courts held fourth Mo day in March, June, Sept. and December.

Beaver Dam - H. F. Yewell, Judge; Wn H. Biankenship, Marshal. Courts held is Saturday in January, April, July and Oct.

Cromwelt-N. C. Daniel, Judge; H. Vise, Maishai. Courts held second Sat ay in January, April, July and October.

JUSTICES COURTS.

FORDSVILLE.

BUFORD.

Jno P. Morton" 20 " 12 " 22 " 25 L. Arbuckie, Mar. 24 June 24 Sept. 24 Dec. 24

CONSTABLES.

- J. W. Payne,

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Baptist Services first Sunday and Sunday ight in every month and Saturday nigh

Y. M.—HARTFORD LODGE, No. 156, Meets first Monday night in each th. S. E. Hill, W. M. H. WEINSHEINER, Secretar

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

WM. F. GREGORY.

TTORNEY AT LAW

HARTFORD, KY.

CHAS. M. PENDLETON,

ATTORNEY AT LAW

and Notary Public.

HARTFORD, KY

SAME, HILL, HENRY MCHENRY

HARTFORD, KY.

Office, Market Street, near Post-office,

ompt attenion given to the column. Office, Grand Jury room.

preceding.

M. E. Church South-Services third at ourth Sundays in each month-Rev. P. Edwards, Pastor. Camberland Presbyterian-Services secon

Begins on the first Mondays in January

Hon .LuciusP. Little, Judge, Owensboro

VOL. 11.

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY, JUNE 17, 1885.

NO. 24.

MORGAN'S ESCAPE. night as we all passed out hurriedly through the hole made by hands other OURetailoringedepart Judge Hines' Version Denounced as than his own. The captain on that occasion, I can assure you, did not stop

IS NOW IN APPLE-PIE ORDER.=

EVERYTHING NEW. ■NEW FIXTURES.

=NEW GOODS.====NEW PAPER.==

THIS DEPARTMENT IS NOW BEING RUN ON THE NEW PLAN---THE LOW PRICE PLAN

FIVE AND FORTY DOLLARS. IT WILL PAY YOU TO VISIT THIS DEPARTMENT.

DEPPEN & SON, CLOTHIERS, HABERDASHERS AND TAILORS,

MORE IN THE MAN THAN IN

BY SIDNEY LANIER.

Ceral vo. V. D. Fulkerson, Judge; J. S. Til-ford, Marshal. Couris held 11 Saturday in January, April, July and October. knowed a man which he lived in Jones Hamilton—J. W. Lankford, Judge; P. M. Brown, marshal. Courts held third Satur-day in January, April, July and October.

Rockport-T. Robertson, Judge; no mar-shal. Courts held first Thursday in Jan-usry, April, July and October. Rosine—L. T. Cox, Judge, B. L. Boyd, mar-shal. Courts field ist Saturday in January April, July and October.

This man-which his name it was also Jone

C. L. Fields. "11 "10 "15 "10 J. McKidley, Mar. 12 June 11 Sept. 9 Dec. 2

R. A. Stevens, Mar. 6 June 5 Sept. 10 Dec. 11 J. D. Byers. "10 " 9 " 8 "15 And danged if a livin' was in the land.

And the longer he swore the madder he got And he riz and he walked to the stable lot;

And a wastin' their time on the land,

So him and Tom they hitched up the mule Pertestin' that folks was mighty big fools That 'nd stay in Georgia their lifetime out,

Was a livin', not far from the edge of town; And bein' as sheriffs was hard to face

H. WEINSHEIMER, Secretary

M. KEYSTONE CHAPTER, No110.—Meets second Monday in each
W.H. MOORE, H.P.
H. WEINSHEIMER Secretary. His entire pile, with the best o' luck, To git thar and git him a little land.

But Brown moved out on the old Jones fare

And he tore it up and ploughed it down; Then he plowed his corn and wheat in the

Five years glid by, and Brown one day, Was a sittin' down sorter lazily To the bulliest dinner you ever see

And thar was Jones standin' out at the fenc And he hadn't no wagin, nor mules nor To Georgia to see if he couldn't get some

HILL & MCHENRY, as if He had never owned any land. ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW But Brown he axed him in and sot

Him down to his vittils smokin hot And when he had filled till he wante Special Attention Given to Collections

That "whether men's land was rich o

How to Check Crime.

One great barrier to the punishn obey is better than to sacrifice."

J. EDWIN ROWE, ATTORNEY AT LAW. in the land." Office. Public Square

HARTFORD, KY. Prompt attention given to the Collection

WALKER & HUBBARD,

LAWYERS HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice in Ohio and adjoining co C. W. MASSIE,

HARTFORD, KY. Will practice in the Courts of Ohio and ac o ining counties and in the Court of Appeal Office—In Court House.

ATTORNEY AT LAW

A. B. BAIRD, Examiner, Surveyor & Pension Claim Agent

Office-Over Anderson's Bazaar. HARTFORD, KY.

Abstracts of titles, plots and calculationed contents of deeds made. Draws all kin

E. D. GUFFY. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Office on Market Street. HARTFORD, KY.

NEATLY EXECUTED AT THE once in the Golden California Insur- and another by the humorist Burdette. HERALD OFFICE. Agent

John Roach, Builder of the New Dis patch Boat Dolphin.

During her fourth trial trip the engines of the Dolphin developed the required by the Naval Department of the United States, and kept it up for six hours. A test has yet to be made of her capabilities in the open sea, when she will be required to make twelve knots And he bantered Brown for to buy his place. the Doplin were not the most comfor-fine steamers.

Mr. Roach is a sturdy protectionist. of crime these days is a sickly senti- and has been often heard from on the mentality. We need a healthier tone subject of subsidizing lines of steamships in society, and allegiance from each by the Government, a policy which individual to the body politic which is has his earnest commendation.

above personal consideration, a spirit Interesting Reading. of justice that demands the protection of all by the lawful punishment of the The July Harper's promises to be one violators of the law. We need the law of unusually varied interest. It will so changed that no man is incapacitat- contain the beginning of Howell's new As the law is, in many cases, the il- series on great American industries, less literate and the uninformed are put on "A Silk Dress," gives a careful account, the juries when the most capable and with many illustrations, of the manuconscientious material is excluded, and facture of silk in this country. A paper often the henchmen of the guilty party describing Buffalo has no less than are placed in the box, regardless of nineteen illustrations of the city of their oath, solely to acquit. Wealth President Cleveland-four of them full and position have much to do with pre- page-and is one of the most brillian venting justice; and sometimes when of the descriptions of American cities the accused richly deserves the halter, which Harper's has from time to time we hear of lawyers of supposed or real published. "A Day's Drive with Monability tendering the criminal their tana Cow-Boys," by the artist Zogbaum, and a pleasant paper on "Am Then again, juries who condemn and persand" in the Adironidacks, with officers who engage in the trial, ask for pictures of the lake and of the mountheir work to be set aside by the Gov- tain of that name, represents out of-door ernor. If their action was wrong, they life, as does also a series of poem, "Midshould have been acquitted; if right, they summer at Mount Desert," by Mrs. should not stultify themselves. Away Mace, with illustrations by Harry with all sentimentality, or pause and Fenn. Gen. Butler contributes an arthat duty is above sympathy, that "to a paper on the interesting architecture a number of illustrations remarkable A business not worth insuring against | for their beauty of detail. Among the loss by fire is not worth following for stories is an amusing one of "His Royal a livelihood. Insure your property at Highness's Love Affair," illustrated, ture by F. S. Church, of "Pandora."

Ostrich Farming in South Africa.

that its domestication was not under- been entirely ignored. taken much earlier than it was. In 1864, Mr. L. von Maltitz gave to the lengthy article upon the escape of Morindustry, should no unexpected ob- enabled us once more to breathe the ing. His son Henry, a promising in his couplet : stacle present itself. As that country air of liberty. I propose, though an lawyer of Louisville, was killed in a renis the home of the cactus family, an humble citizen of this Commonwealth, abundance of ostrich food is already by the consent of the editors of the thirteen thousand acres in extent, belonging to Mr. Charlwood, who is one self-made men. He is rich, but began ing birds are worth up to two hundred life in extreme poverty. An ambitious and fifty dollars per pair, plucking youth, at sixteen years of age he left birds about fifty dollars each, and chickhis native Ireland for the New World ens from the shell are valued at seven He landed in New York, where he dollars and a half each. The market sought employment in vain. Crossing value of the feathers from a full grown over into Jersey, sixty miles from Jer- ostrich for a year, averages about thirsey City, he found a man who had ty-two dollars. This will give some worked for his father in the old coun- idea of the large revenue Mr. Charitry, and by his kindness was given em- wood receives from his ostriches. The and there we informed him of our inployment at the Howell Works. In farm on which Mr. Charlwood keeps three years' time the Irishman had the ostriches is so dry that not so much saved fifteen hundred dollars, which he as cabbage will grow upon it, and the with this intention. The cash he had the present time Mr. Charlwood has told, let it affect who it may. In Basil were first introduced they were made woke: left was lost in business reverses about one hundred and fifty chickens, W. Duke's history he gets my name as by the Morgan Envelope Company of "Come in, my dear; it shall cost you which over ook the man to whom he which are taken from the nests as soon James Hockersmith. James Hockersmith. James Hockersmith. Springfield Massachusetts, Then the naught and never fear. This is the Stx Months, had entrusted it, and Mr. Roach was as hatched and fed by hand with green smith was in the Federal army. I American Phototype Company secured place where I cook the ones who never compelled to forego his scheme and en- food, which has to be brought from a know not where he got his informa- the contract, and the cards were made pay their subscription surns; for though gage in common labor for a living. In village some miles away. Mr Charlion, unless it was from Capt. Sheldon at Holyoke, Mass. A third contract in life they may escape, they will find a short time he worked his way back wood, in feeding the birds, uses tons of or some one who was actually engaged was gained by Messrs. Woodworth & when dead it is too late. I will show to New York, married and began busi- bones, limestone, etc., and employs a in the work. Capt. Sheldon did faithness. Again he was checked by the small army of native servants. The ful work in our efforts to escape, as did made the cards at Castleton, N. Y. hot chains and scraps of tin, and also loss of all he had, consequent upon the breeding birds must be supplied with others. In Collins' History of Kenexplosion of a boiler; but started afresh water and food daily, which means tucky there is another account given each award. At first it was $1.39; per glass and melted lead, and if of refreshas soon as possible, prospered, and in that sixty-five troughs of water, dotted by Judge Hines, which is far from betime became famous as a builder of over six hundred and fifty acres of ing correct, and in which he again figtarge engines. In 1871, being then the owner of extensive iron works, he had camp supplied with cut up prickly while the captain was a candidate for sufficient captain to the cards were made to the cards we sufficient capital to begin the manu- pears and other food. The water is judge of the Court of Appeals, he came weigh six pounds to the 1,000 but, for toes; and if they mention they don't facture of iron ships, and bought yards hauled from a dam some miles away to Madisonville, my home, where he eight years 1,000 cards have weighed like fire, I'll sew up their mouths with for this purpose, at Chester, Pennsylva- from the camps. The plucking birds was almost a stranger. He sent for me 61 pounds. The next contract will call red hot wire, and then, dear sir, you nia, where he has constructed many are herded like sheep, and roam all to call upon him, and seemed surprised for cards weighing 51 pounds per 1,000. should see them squirm, while I roll over the farm.

About nine miles from Graaf-Reinet

On the first day of July, important postal rates. The principle changes relate to letter postage and newspaper rates to publishers, of bona fide publi. cations, and to news agents.

On the first of July letters of all weights, from one ounce down, will be ed from sitting on a jury from any story, "Indian Summer," besides a sent for two cents to any post office in opinion he has formed of the merits of further instalment of Miss Woolson's the United States. The rate heretofore the case outside of the sworn evidence. "East Angels." A new article in the has been two cents for a half ounce or > ounce will be correspondingly greater; ounce or fraction of an ounce, it mat-

Drop letters at offices where there is no free delivery by carriers, remains at version of the whole affair, to neither tem by carriers prevails the rate will be two cents. Newspaper publishers and give to any man credit that belongs to landers, the Papuans, the Esquimanx. news agents can mail publications, printed periodically, at the rate of one cent per pound, when sent to regular county of publication.

used on the first of July.

of the Escape.

GENTLEMEN:-I have recently had ounts of the escape of Gen. Morgan Columbus, Ohio, on the night of the oughly ventilated. 28th of November, 1863. These accounts to me have been both pleasant lished account heretofore Capt. Hines fully cultivates. The other son lives in very generally in Pennsylvania, Marytrich feathers, by hunting and killing has made himself the hero of the whole Boston and is connected with a publand, District of Columbia, Delaware, the bird, threatened to exterminate the escape, while others have been made lishing house. ostrich, and it is a matter of surprise to occupy inferior positions or have Gleaner, through their most excellent paper, to give the true version of the Cape Colony, South Africa, is a farm, affair, let it hurt whom it may. Gross injustice has been done to many good men, brave and true, in the accounts of the targest and most successful os heretofore published of this maryelous trich farmers in the Colony. On this escape, while some have reaped honor farm there are no less than fifty six therefor who were not entitled to it.

1863, Capt. Hipes came into cell No. on my bed engaged in conversation in grandsons of Henry Clay. regard to our escape, when Hines came against the whites." Capt. Taylor replied: "You are damned mighty right," changes occur in the laws pertaining to had taken to himself the whole credit color, and the printing will probably be seem, that he cannot believe it was all

> Basil Duke, and that history is farther from being correct than the first. I propose to correct some of the many or written in this series of articles, as words. Newspapers and periodicals go two can give the better description of free of postage to regular subscribers this cavern? It is the same with this ance Company. John P. Barrett, The frontispiece is a characteristic picstion, are now ready for sale, and will be secure, while the only time that Capt. fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, 931 Arch duly given to prayer will also strike with her mother near Lexington. The and Kentucky. counter in that city a few months ago. and his slayer has just been convicted of

L. D. HOCKERSMITH, Captain Co. C., 10th Ky. Cavalry.

Henry Clay's Family.

James B. jr., the eldest of the children, is a farmer and engaged in rais an hour, loaded. After then, all being well, Mr. Roach will be one of the hapwell, Mr. Roach will be one of the happairs of breeding ostriches. These are I say positively that Judge Hines did S. A., and at present stationed at Fort establish it by direct observations of Union, N. M. Charles D. Clay, the the larve from year to year. piest men in the country. Up to the fourth trial trip his experiences with about six hundred and fifty acres. Behe, Hines, knew anything whatever of the sixth son, lives near Lexington 28, which was the one occupied by myThomas H. Clay, and the four sons of of a business debt, old Morpheus slowly self Capt. Taylor and I were seated James B. Clay, are the only living around him crept, and before he knew

The New Postal Cards-[Worcester Gazette.] to find that I was opposed to him in This reduction in thickness will cheap- them over and cook to a turn." his race. I gave as my reasons that in en the cost of manufacture, but other his account in Collins' History that I changes will increase the expense. The awoke, and thought it all a practical and others had been ignored, while he new cards are to be of a light cream joke, but still at times, so real did it for the escape. He said that I judged in blue ink, while the devices may be a dream; and often he thinks with a him wrong; that he had referred Collins to Capt. Sheldon and myself for a correct account of this, and that the correct account of this, and that the tract may be, the Government will himself would see that justice was done provide for a rigid protection of to all. He failed to do this, but is now their rights in the bargain, re-

Manners and Customs

Let us now suppose a case, so that Malays always sit down when speaking we may be able to see who could prop- to a superior. The inhabitants of Malli- the counsellor admits that 'there can be erly describe the scenes of that November of 1863. Two men go through the their admiration by hissing: the Esqui- to the throne of grace, earnestly offered Newspaper publishers can also send Mammoth Cave, one of them rushing maux pull a person's nose as a complisample copies of their publications at through as if for life itself. His time is ment; a Chinaman puts on his hat where tive of freeing his own mind from proj one cent a pound, but news agents can limited; if he fails to get through in a we should take it off, and among the udice and passion." But "a public not. Any article or item in a newspa- certain time he forfeits liberty and same curious people a cofflu is consider prayer in such a place" presents a dif look at the picture of sympathy and ticle giving the complete history of his per or other periodical may be marked perhaps life itself. The other has days ed as a neat and appropriate present ferent case, since "one long practiced ook at the picture of sympathy and the giving the complete history of his sorrow on the other side, and then learn yacht America. Art is represented by must not be by written or printed time; he lives in there. Which of the health. who receive them at post-offices in the air chamber under the penitentiary. All fits stopped free by Dr. Kline's fluence.' For twenty-eight days myself and oth- Great Nerve Restorer. No fits after The Court has not yet announced its Stamps specially designed for the ers were under ground digging and first day's use. Marvellous cures, opinion. In law the objection is a new one year for $2.50. Two Papers for Ittu in the air chamber to make any exam-

I shall continue from time to time to and six others from the penitentiary at write upon this subject until it is thor

The inquiry is made as to the living distinct broads, one a 17 year and the the many stirring events connected descendants of Henry Clay. The pre-other a 13 year brood. with that memorable struggle. Pain- sence of James B. Clay, Jr., of Lex- It is 221 years ago, or in 1664, since ful, because in all the published reports inton, Ky., in the city at the Nation- these two broods appeared simultane of that escape from the old State prison at Hotel, where he was born while his ously. The 13 year brood is located not one of them so far has been cor- father was a representative in Congress, principally in the Mississippi Valley. rect. Had the brave Gen. Morgan and where his immortal grandfather reaching up as far as the mouth of the lived to give his version of that affair died -affords the opportunity to an- Missouri, and having its thickest cenit would be unnecessary at this time for swer it authoritatively. There is but ters in Union County, Southern Hilmois, me to say anything about it. He would one son of the "Great Commoner" and in Kansas, Missouri, Georgia have seen that every man connected living, John M. Clay, who resides in a Louisiana, Tennessee, and Mississippi therewith should have had justice done portion of the original Ashland estate. The 17 year brood is one of the largest am, and that the honors, if any there and is a farmer and stock-raiser. Thom- of all those known to occur, and will were, in the escape, should rest where as H. Clay (deceased)left two sons and sppear on Long Island in Kings and they justly belong, and not upon one a daughter. Henry B., the elder of the in Monroe counties, New York, at Fali whose only work was to sit in his cell sons has a plantation on the Hoisten River, in the southeastern portion of door and study French. In every pub-manslaughter.

will take offense at what may be said tractors if all is not satisfactory. As a sign of affection, kissing was un newspaper rate, of one cent denominas working with such tools as we could Treatise and $2.00 trial bottle free to one. A complaint that a juror is un-

Expected Advent of the Locust. According to Prof. C. V. Riley, the U. S. Entomologist, we are to experience this year a very extended appearination, but pulled through as rapidly ance of the insect known as the Periodical Cleada, alias the "17 year locust." Prof. Riley, who has made many original observations on this insect, and who 17 years ago published an account of twenty-two distinct broods, and first announced that there is a 13 year race of the species, states that we shall witness this year the conjunction of two and Virginia, also in northwestern The daughter is unmarried and lives Ohio, in Southern Michigan, in Indiana.

Agricultural Society of Cape Town, gan and his men, written by this hero na Vista during the war with Mexico, ground, developing slowly, and some-South Africa, an account of his experi-Hines and vouched for by Gen. Basil is the wife of Henry C. McDowell, who times burrowing far below the frost ment with seventeen ostriches. His W. Duke, who seems to be grooming owns the Ashland residence where they line. Prof. Riley says that they will results encouraged others, and ostrich the judge for the coming Appellate live. Colonel Clay left two sons, one begin to rise from the ground about the farming soon became an established in- election. I am much surprised at served in the union and the other in latter part of May in the more Southdustry in South Africa Ostrich farm- many statements that he has made to the confederate army, and they lie side ern portion of the country and early in ing has been followed to a limited extent in South America, and it has been his. He claims the honor of origina- Of the family of James B. Clay, charge the woods will resound with the hoarse commenced in Southern California. ting the scheme to escape, and also to d'affaires to Portugal, and a representattling noise which the males make There are vast tracts on our southern have laid out and carried into effect the tative in Congress as above mentionborder that might be utilized for this plans, the successful workings of which ed, four sons and one daughter are liv-"Happy the Cleads lives

Since they all have voiceless wives ing thoroughbred horses in Fayette the underground life of the insect has county, Ky. Thomas J. Clay, who is been hitherto inferred only from the the fourth son, but the next living, is a periodical appearance of the perfect Ist lieutenant in the 16th infantry, U. insect, he has since then been able to

A printer sat in his office chair; his

it, soundly slept. And sleeping he dreamed that he was dead-from trouble and toil his spirit had fled-and The use of the postal card as a means that not even a cowbell tolled, for the which was his way of swearing. Capt, of correspondence has grown notably peaceful rest of his cowhide soul. As he rate, but enough of them are still in- smoke and scorch of lower hades-he tentions, and on certain conditions let cluded in the mail matter of the country shortly observed an iron door, that him into the secret as a third party. to give general interest to the new creakingly swung on hinges ajar, but At the proper time I shall let the reader arrangements regarding them. Im. the entrance was crossed by a red hot determined to invest in land. Leaving ostriches are fed, in times of drouth, on know what these conditions were, and portant changes are to be instituted to bar, and Satan himself stood peeping almost the whole of his savings in the a species of cactus, known as the pricks shall also probably ask the captain morrow. A new contract is to be out, watching for travelers thereabout, hands of Mr. Allaire, his employer at ly pear. This is cut by a machine some questions that will surprise the the Howell Works, he started West made for the purpose in America. At many. The truth must and shall be style of cards, When the postal cards and with growling voice the echoes

Prayer in the Jury Room.
[New York Herald.]

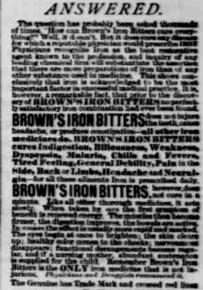

The Kansas Supreme Court has been writing a history himself, backed by quiring a bond of some $200,000 from called upon to decide a point probably the successful firm, and reserving the never before raised. It seems that whe liberty of keeping an expert in the the jury went out, one of their number mill where the paper is made and an proposed to open their deliberations errors that have been written in regard inspector in the place where the cards with prayer, and thereupon proceeded to that midnight escape, and hope that are made, with final power by the to pray "loud and long." What the neither Judge Hines nor any one else Postmaster-General to fine the con-tenor of the appeal was, whether it was impartial or avorable to either side. does not appear. The verdict, however, was against the defendant, whererob any one of any honor due him, nor known to the Australians, the New Zen- on the ground of "undue influence exand other races. The Polynesians and of public prayer in the jury room."

In his elaborate brief on the point can play upon the weaker brother, and the more gifted in prayer is the leader, the more powerful will be his in Hines was under ground was on that St., Philadelphia, Pa. 11 19 lyr. the public as a novelty.

A QUESTION ABOUT

Brown's Iron Bitters

THE COURIER-JOURNAL FOR 1885. Live Ideas, Live Issues

AND MORAL FORCES.

PATRONIZE HOME.

Man and Beast,

Mustang Liniment is older than most men, and used more and more every year.

THE HERALD

Weekly Courier-Journal more than one.
Send us $2.5c and receive your home pap and the Courier-Journal, the best, willie rrightest and ablest Family Weekly in